

AAO To Recognize NYSOS Members

The AAO's Achievement Awards Program recognizes individuals for their time and contribution to the scientific programs of the Annual Meeting and those who serve as Academy committee members, representatives, trustees, councilors, authors, coauthors and reviewers of educational materials. Four NYSOS members are among the group of distinguished physicians to be recognized at the Academy's Annual Meeting in November:

Life Achievement Award

Yale L. Fisher, MD (New York)

Gwen K. Sterns, MD (Rochester)

Senior Achievement Award

Philip J. Ferrone, MD (Great Neck)

Achievement Award

Lama A. Al-Aswad, MD (New York)

The Secretariat Awards Program recognizes individuals for contributions outside the scope of the Achievement Awards Program.

Dale R. Meyer, MD (Albany) and Gwen K. Sterns, MD (Rochester) were nominated by the Secretaries for Quality of Care & Knowledge Base Development, Ophthalmic Knowledge, Online Educational/eLearning; the editors for ONE Network; and the Senior Secretary for Clinical Education.

Two Times Congratulations to Dr. Sun

Grace Sun, MD (New York) was recently named Directory of Residency Training for the New York Hospital program. Additionally, she was appointed to fill the newly created Young Ophthalmologist seat on the NYSOS Board of Directors.

Along with Drs. Paul Mignone (Mount Vernon), Julie Tsai (Troy) and Martin O'Malley (formerly of Albany), Dr. Sun was a member of the Society's inaugural Leadership Development class.
